A bursary is a monetary award that is granted on the basis of financial need. The intention of the Mazinaajim Children's Foundation bursary program is to support applicants who clearly demonstrate financial need. Bursary funds do not have to be repaid. The Mazinaajim Children's Foundation bursary program application will be available four times a year; March 1st, June 1st, September 1st and December 1st.

All information you provide will be reviewed only by the review committee and used solely for determining Bursary allocation. All information will be kept STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.
